Sretan Zujovic, former Finance Minister of Yugoslavia, is reported to have been executed. According to his wife, Zujovic, during a session of the Politburo, resisted strongly to the nationalization of small business because the state would not gain financially and because it would be politically unwise to arouse the antagonism of the public. An argument ensued between Zujovic and Moshe Pijade in which Zujovic asserted Pijade had Jewish sympathies and belonged in Palestine. Zujovic was arrested a short time later and was charged with espionage for the imperialist powers. His wife was permitted to bring him food and clothes for a short time, but later she was informed that Zujovic no longer needed such items.

 Comment: Andrija Hebrang, who was arrested at the same time, was reported executed immediately after a mock trial.)
